

METROFLOR PRESENTS 2019 PERFORMANCE AWARDS DURING TISE

NORWALK, CT, Jan. 28, 2020 – Metroflor Corporation bestowed its annual distributor performance awards at The International Surface Event (TISE) in Las Vegas. At the Foundation Room in Mandalay Bay, Metroflor’s sales team presented “best of the best” accolades for 2019. Some highlights include:

- Once again, Tri-West, Ltd. received the most awards for a total of three: The Paramount Award, honoring Metroflor’s single largest distributor based on overall sales volume across all products and brands in 2019; the Metroflor LVT Distributor of the Year; and the Western Region Sales Champion Award, bestowed to Kris Gunckel.
- Kirk Sandifer and Nick Melnyk of newcomer Cain & Bultman, which became a Metroflor distributor-partner last year, received the Visionary Award for best embracing Metroflor’s brands and products. “We were fortunate and grateful to align with Cain & Bultman in 2019 and expectations were exceeded. Kirk and Nick in particular truly embraced our company and our products and quickly built a wonderful new Metroflor portfolio that they’re representing throughout the state of Florida. If 2019 was any sign of what’s to come, the future is bright between Metroflor and Cain & Bultman”.

Said Metroflor President Russ Rogg, “We applaud all our distributors for their 2019 achievements and proudly acknowledge their contributions during a year filled with unparalleled uncertainties. While we are recognizing our distributors for achievements during 2019, what’s more important is that we’ve collectively set the stage for what should be a very, very good 2020.”
